

Please do not weaken the current do not call list. I do not want telemarketers trespassing into my home via the telephone. It is actually nice to be able to sit and relax without the many interruptions that we have experienced in the past, prior to the do not call statute.